

CLARIFICATION TEXT FOR SUPPLIER EMPLOYEES OF WATERNET WITHIN THE SCOPE OF PDP LAW

According to the Personal Data Protection Law, which came into effect in April 2016, we inform you that:

- Your personal data belonging to employees, obtained in the ways specified below, within the scope of our commercial relationships or our business relationship with your employees, is processed;
- In a manner connected, limited, and proportional to the purpose,
- Maintaining the accuracy and most up-to-date status of the personal data as you have provided or as it has been provided to us,
- Can be recorded, stored, preserved, rearranged, shared with institutions authorized to request such personal data under the law, following the conditions prescribed by the PDP Law, both domestically and internationally, classified, and processed in other ways specified in the PDP Law.

RELATED TO SUPPLIER EMPLOYEE DATA

The Company collects and processes personal data from supplier employees or representatives verbally, physically, or electronically. The personal data collected and processed and how they are collected are specified below.

The Company can collect personal data directly from data subjects verbally or through electronic means and process this personal data. You can access the table below to see which personal data is collected and processed and how they are collected.

WHY DO WE COLLECT YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

These data may be obtained from you for the following reasons:

- Waternet may need to collect your personal data to carry out legal processes. Failure to provide this personal data may violate our obligation to ensure security within the scope of the Labor Law and relevant legislation. It may pose a risk of not benefiting from your rights.
- Waternet may need to collect your Personal data to fulfill its legal obligations within the framework of the relevant legislation. Failure by Waternet to fulfill its legal obligations may expose it to sanctions and may prevent your legal obligations from being fulfilled through Waternet.
- Waternet may need to collect your personal data to perform the contract between you and Waternet. The inability to share the personal data obtained here may prevent the healthy conduct of your business relationship with Waternet, the fulfillment of some processes established in your favor by Waternet, or the difficulty of fulfilling them from your perspective.
- Waternet may collect your personal data to always prioritize its legitimate interests. Since the purposes of collecting your personal data are the same as the processing purposes of Waternet, these legitimate interests are explained under the "Especially for ensuring the legitimate interests of the Company" clause below "Processing Purposes of Your Personal Data."

YOUR RIGHTS UNDER ARTICLE 11 OF THE PDP LAW

According to Article 11 of the PDP Law, you have the right to:

- Learn whether your personal data is being processed by the Company and, if so, request information about it,
- Learn whether your personal data has been transferred domestically or internationally and to whom it has been transferred,
- Learn the purpose of processing your personal data and whether they are used for their intended purpose.

Furthermore, you have the right to request correction of your incorrect or incomplete personal data and to request notification of the recipients to whom your data have been transferred or may have been transferred. You may request the deletion and destruction of your data from the Company within the framework of the conditions stipulated in Article 7 of the PDP Law. At the same time, you may request that the third parties to whom the data have been transferred or may be transferred be informed about the deletion and destruction of the data. If the results of your personal data analysis, which have been created using an automated system, are contrary to your interests, you may object. If you suffer damage due to the unlawful processing of your personal data, you may request compensation for the damage.

Your requests in your application will be concluded within thirty days at the latest, free of charge, depending on the nature of the request. However, if the process requires an additional cost for the Company, a fee may be charged according to the tariff determined by the Personal Data Protection Board.

You must fill out the application form on the Company's website (<https://www.waternet.com.tr/pdp>) and submit it to the Company as stated in the form.
